

How might women create food and financial security for themselves through agriprenuership?

By Nobubele Nzima

About Me

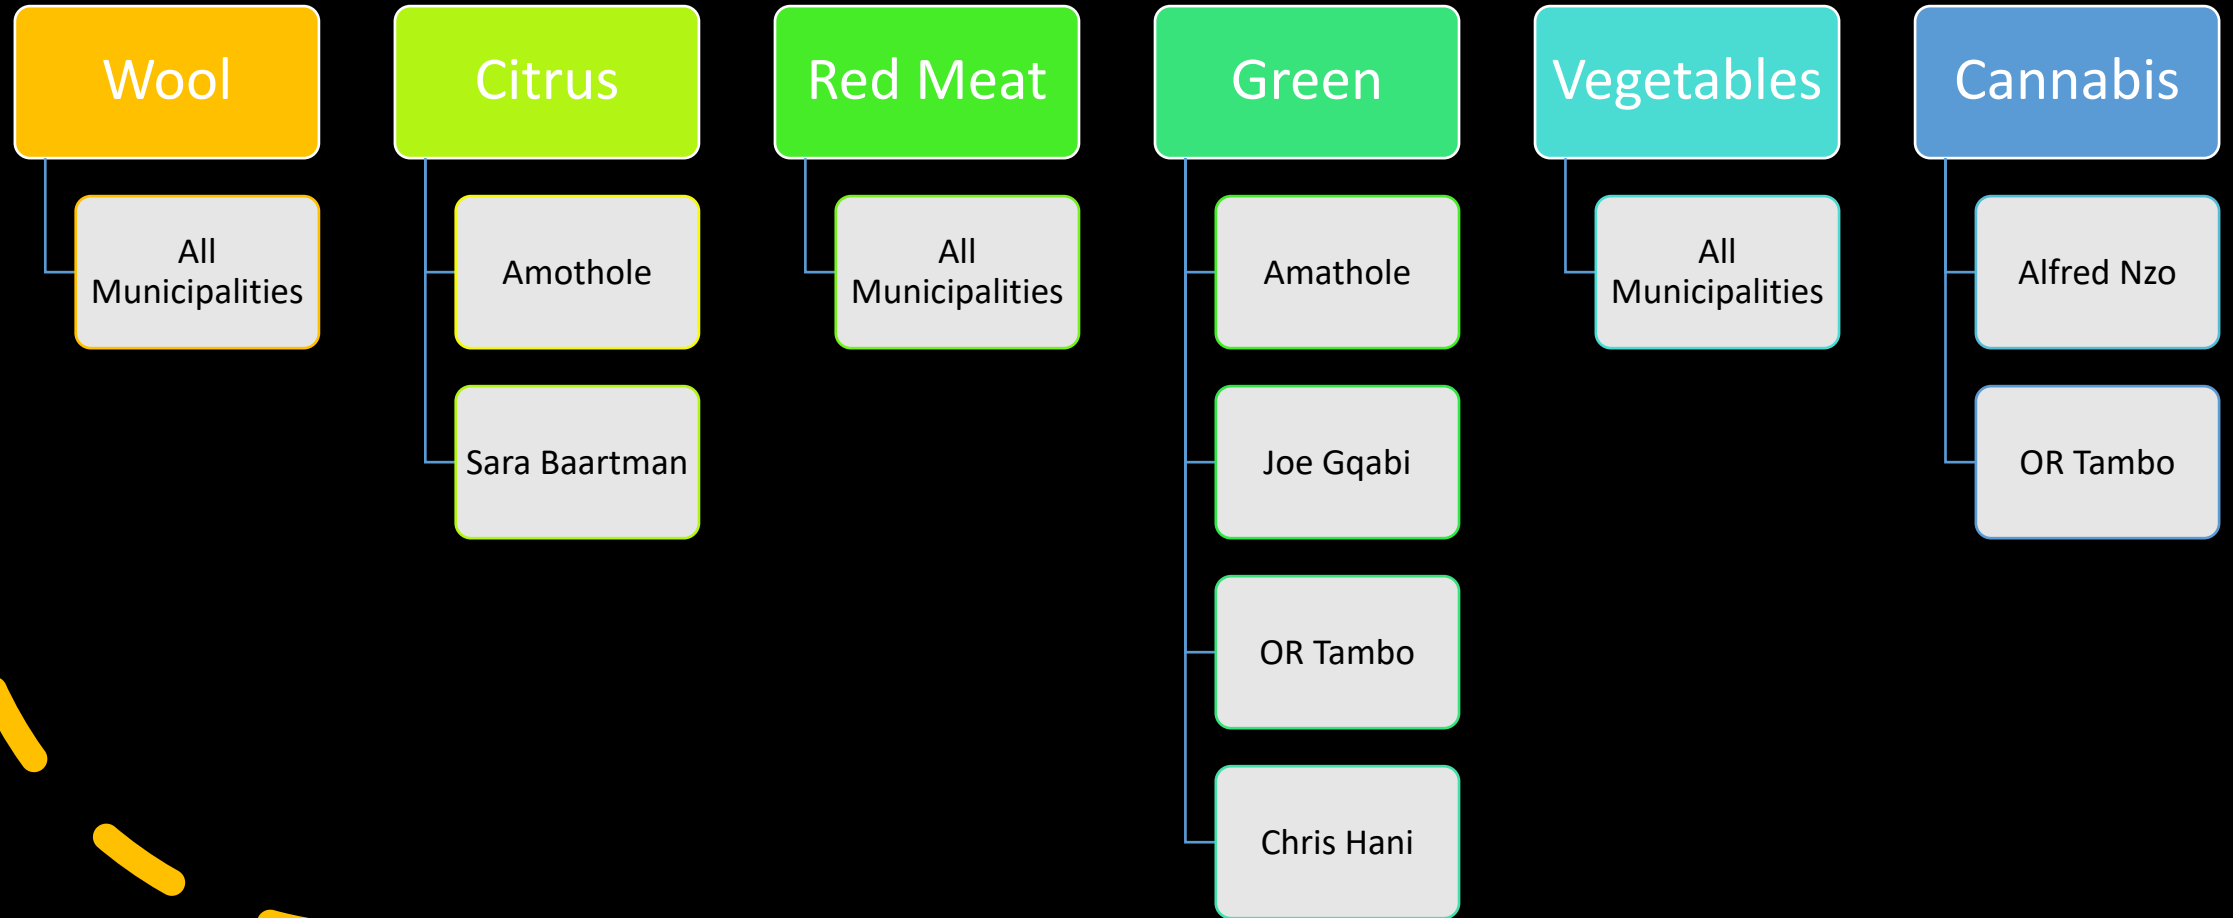

- My name is Nobubele Nzima from Company Bellarosa WIP Productions Pty Ltd and Bellarosa WIP Agricultural Primary Co-Operative Limited.
- Bcom in Financial Planning
- Bcom Honours Business Management
- My company Bellarosa WIP Productions is a female owned Poultry business based in the Eastern Cape Mthatha, in a township called Maydene Farm.
- Delegate attending the Embassy of France in South Africa Women
- Agripreneurship Programme with GIBS Entrepreneurship Development Academy
- Director of a Non-Profit company Future Builders Foundation FBF that deals with child welfare and youth development.
- Candidate / Trainee for WOI – 100 Day Challenge (UN Woman Initiative to fight against Gender Based Violence and Femicide for OR Tambo District 2022)
- Ambassador for Bar-One

Significance of Agribusiness

- 30 years of genetical farming
- The 2nd highest number of cattle in SA are in the Eastern Cape
- East London has a harbours used for exports of livestock overseas
- Animal fibre – PE/Gqeberha
- The main contributors of income in the Eastern Cape are
 - Livestock
 - Horticulture

Distribution of Agribusiness in Eastern Cape

Opportunities in Agribusiness

- Main focus of agribusiness is agriprocessing
- White maize meal is in demand in SA = Processed from white maize
- R 45 million in Lusikisiki College for cannabis
- Cannabis (Value chain for medicine, fuel, fibre)
- Licenses for cannabis
 - 6 owners
 - 1 investor
 - Training farmers to meet dev of infrastructure
 - Machinery and nursery

Funding and financial services

- South African Breweries
- Transnet
- Private Banks
- Department of Social Development (DSD)
- Department of Rural Development (DRDAR)
- Department of Economic Development
- Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism (DEDEAT)
- Eastern Cape Development Fund (ECDC)
- NYDA
- Isiqalo Youth Fund – Premier's Office
- Local and Regional Economic Development (LRED)
- IDC Agrifund
- Women Economic Empowerment Funds
- UN Women
- ETC

Agribusiness is a means for community development and empowerment

Agriculture is used as a means for economic recovery in rural areas

Extension officers

Women, Youth and People with disabilities

Embassy of France in South Africa
Women Agripreneurship Programme 2022

Featured:
Bellarosa WIP Agricultural
Primary Co-Operative Ltd

Thank-You